

MAINE
DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

The Maine Bureau of Labor Standards
In collaboration with
The Maine State Fire Marshal's Office
&
The Maine Fire Service Institute are pleased to bring an informational program on Safe and Effective Live Fire Training

Where: Maine Bureau of Labor Standards, Located at 45 Commerce Drive, Augusta

When: January 16th 2018

Time: 08:30 am to 12:30 pm

NFPA # 1403 Live Burn Training

This half-day course provides training to fire fighters and emergency response personnel on the proper approach for conducting safe and efficient, live, fire-training evaluations for both acquired structures and static-burn facilities. Discussion will also include legal ramifications in the event of a negative outcome. The class is limited to 48 attendees Course includes:

NFPA1403 Overview

Accident Investigation

Legal Implications

To sign up please go to the following web-site:

<http://www.safetyworksmaine.gov/training/>

Or click the link (or copy and paste in browser) to sign up.

<http://www.maine.gov/tools/whatsnew/index.php?topic=SafetyworksClasses&v=ListAll>

For more information please contact

Supervisor Michael LaPlante at michael.a.laplante@maine.gov

Or MFSI Director Jim Graves at jgraves@smccme.edu